Big Talk Homework

For Big Write this week I am writing an Explanation (Text Type).
It is an explanation about being a good friend.
Please read the ideas below:

A great time to do this is while we are sitting at the table for dinner or at a time when there are no distractions (such as TV or computers).
I would love to hear your ideas and opinions as well to help me with my ideas. Please remember to use the "because" word and remind me to do the same. That way when I write tomorrow I will have so many ideas and will be able to use a connective like "because" to make my ideas really valuable.
Can you please help me explore some up-leveled V.C.O.P for my writing?
V=Vocabulary, WOW words
C= Connectives, words that join ideas together
O= Openers, Amazing ways to start a sentence. Words that end in "ly" or "ing" are power words.
P= Punctuation- Capital letters, full stops, Talking marks, commas, apostrophe, exclamation mark, question marks and so on.

Me, the friend

When you see the word FRIEND you probably think of someone very special in your life; someone you like to spend time with. When some other people see that same word they might think of you, because you are very special to them and they enjoy your company.

Think for a moment about why someone else might think of you as a friend. Create a concept map with a picture of you in the middle. Draw arrows out from the picture. At the end of each arrow, write about a special quality that you have, such as, 'I am really good at sharing with others'. Use this diagram to help you write a text that explains why you would be regarded by others as a good friend.
